A WORD FROM THE PRESIDENT

I had the pleasure recently of a visit from Stan Shantz, member of the London P.S., Chapter No. 9 and also Stamp Editor of the London Free Press. We had a very pleasant couple of hours together and I am looking forward to meeting him once again at the Annual Dinner and Exhibition of the London P.S. on the 2nd April.

This visit, and a letter from Russ Burr, President of the Winnipeg P.S., received recently informing me that Bob Woolley, our "Perfin friend", had twice visited the Winnipeg P.S. last year, brought to my mind the fact that, although I have been your President for two years, I have never had the visit of anyone from the Prairies or the Coast. We have among our members everywhere many business men who surely must do a great deal of travelling and I find it hard to believe that NOT ONE came to Toronto in the past two years. And I find it even more difficult to believe that some MIGHT have come to the Queen City and not thought it worth while just to call up and say Hello! to the President of their own National Society ... and yet?

Just the same, I am looking forward to seeing many of you in Montreal on the 22-23-24 April, so ON TO MONTREAL!

I am very pleased to welcome most warmly into the ranks of our chapters Chapter No. 36, R.C.A.F. Station Stamp Club, Aylmer, Ont., Chapter No. 37, Quinte Stamp Club of Belleville, Ont., Chapter No. 38, Dublin Stamp Society, Ireland, and Chapter No. 39, Coaticook Stamp Club, P.Q., Chapter No. 40, The Société Philatélique de Québec, Quebec, P.Q., and hope they will all derive much enjoyment and benefit from their Chaptership with the Society.

TOUT dernièrement, j'ai eu le plaisir d'une visite de Stan Shantz, membre de la London Philatelic Society et rédacteur philatélique du London Free Press. Nous avons passé deux heures agréables ensemble et je m'attends au plaisir de le revoir au banquet et à l'exposition annuelle de la London P.S. le 2 avril.

Cette visite, suivie d'une lettre de Russ Burr, président de la Winnipeg P.S., me disant que Bob Woolley, notre grand amateur de piquages privés (Perfins) avait visité la Winnipeg P.S. à deux occasions l'année dernière, m'a rappelé que depuis deux ans que j'ai l'honneur d'être votre président, personne n'est venu me voir de l'Ouest. Je sais que parmi nos membres nous avons nombre d'hommes d'affaires qui doivent assurément voyager assez souvent, et j'ai peine à croire que pas un seul ne soit venu à Toronto depuis deux ans. Et j'ai encore plus de difficulté à croire qu'il y en a qui soient venus et qui ont estimé qu'une visite au président de leur société philatélique nationale n'en valait pas le peine ... et pourtant?

Quand même, je m'attends au plaisir de voir un grand nombre de nos membres à Montréal les 22-23-24 avril et, par conséquent, EN ROUTE POUR MONTREAL!

C'est avec plaisir que nous accueillons dans les rangs de nos sections régionales les sections no 36, R.C.A. Station, à Aylmer, Ont.; no 37, Quinte Stamp Club, à Belleville, Ont.; no 38, Dublin Stamp Society, à Dublin, Irlande, et no 39, Coaticook Stamp Club, de Coaticook, P.Q.; no 40, Société Philatélique de Québec, Québec, P.Q. et j'espère que toutes ces sociétés trouveront plaisir et avantage à faire partie de notre Société.

J. M. LAMOURoux,
President.
Some Philatelic Firsts

PART II

Have you ever wondered why we use the term “mail.” The word is from a Middle English word, male, which is from a French word, malle, meaning a bag, wallet, or trunk. Since postal service, as we know it today, is of comparatively recent origin there was no word with which to designate the collective letters, dispatches, parcels, and other articles carried by the postmen. It was only natural, then, to call this postal matter by the name of the pouch in which it was transported.

The postage stamp got its curious name from the fact that in the early days of mail service the amount paid for the transmission of the article was stamped on the wrapper of the letter or parcel. Actually the adhesive label we are so familiar with, and fond of, replaced the post stage stamp and became known by the description of the thing it had replaced.

The post office pen has often been joked about, but to us it would be no joke to use one made by hand from quills or wing feathers. It is interesting to note that the word “pen” from the Middle English and old French “penne,” from the Latin “penna” means feather, quill. In modern French the word for a writing pen is “plume” which also means a plume, or feather, as in English.

Postage free mail is said to be franked. The literal meaning of the word “frank” is free. Benjamin Franklin, when Continental Postmaster General, used the frank “B. Free Franklin.”

The envelope is so called because it envelops the letter. Paper is from the Latin, “papyrus” a reed from which the Egyptians made a kind of crude paper.

The word “post” in the meaning of mail, as in post office, postal, postman, etc. is from the French “postes”—a fixed position or station. The mail of early days was carried from post to post by couriers. Some rode horses, others travelled on foot, while others rode in swaying, rumbling coaches from stage to stage (“stage coaches”).

We find this inscription on the General Post Office in New York City. It is a free translation of the tribute of Herodotus to the Persian messengers:

“Not snow, nor rain, nor heat, nor gloom of night stays these couriers from the swift completion of their appointed rounds.”

We are familiar with the story of the Penny Black, which I understand is called in Japan the Black Penny. Probably, too, we know that Mauritius was the first British colony to officially issue its own stamps. I doubt if it is generally known that the Govt. lost money on the deal. Bernard quoted Ten Pounds for printing the stamps. He was told to print 500 of each value, the total face value being £6/5/0, so the post office lost £4/5/0, and still had the cost of handling the letters to meet.

One of the earliest references in print to stamp collecting appears in the “Family Herald” for March 22, 1851, where “T.H.S.” offers 4 penny reds for “one oval off the stamped envelopes.”

“T.H.S.” was apparently the proprietor of Smith’s Library, at 20 Brewer Street, Golden Square, London, for the Smith’s Library had a ceiling decorated with 80,000 postage stamps and was certainly one of the most unusually decorated ones in all Britain. One is tempted to wonder what those 80,000 stamps were, and just what they would be worth today.

No one seems to care to state with supporting facts just who was the pioneer collector of Penny Black and other early postage stamps. But apparently there were collectors before that. The Stamp Collectors Magazine, for March 1, 1864, is quoted as saying; “We find by consulting an old file of newspapers that John Bourke, Esq., Receiver General of the Stamp Duties, Ireland, formed a collection in Dublin in 1774, in which year stamp duties commenced in Ireland.”

The periodical goes on to describe the collection.

This Stamp Collectors Magazine apparently was not the original stamp periodical. On Dec. 1st, 1862, the “Monthly Advertiser” made its appearance. It was later called the “Stamp Collectors Review.” It died out on June 16th, 1864.

The world’s first, and only, daily stamp newspaper was published by C. H. Meckel, 1896.

The French were prominent in the early days of collecting. The first album was produced by Lallier, of Paris, in 1862, and the first recorded stamp auction was held in Paris three years later.

It was five years later before one was held in the U.S.A., and there appears to be some doubts as to when the first auction was held in London.

We are indebted to the French also for the perforation gauge, and for many of the terms used in the hobby, including the first special name applied to the collection of postage stamps.

This was Timbromanie, later changed to Timbrology. It came from the familiar use of the word “timbre,” a noun which means stamp. There is, however, the unfortunate fact that used as an adjective the word is a local expression for a person who has a screw loose. Perhaps it is a good name, at that.

Later, Joseph Sloper patented a machine for perforating words or initials on stamps.

No one seems to know who introduced hinges into the stamp world. I remember using small pieces of margin papers in my early collecting days, but cannot recall when I first used hinges.

The first commemorative stamp was issued by Peru in 1871. It marked the 20th anniversary of the completion of the Trans-Andean railway, a very fine piece of engineering.

The first stamp depicting a locomotive was issued in 1860 by New Brunswick, and the notorious Connell was responsible for this design.

The 90th Anniversary of the first use of Railway mail cars was recently celebrated in Chicago.

The first British commemorative appeared in 1887, with the so-called “Jubilee” issue of Great Britain, and the next one was the Hong Kong 50th Anniversary overprints of 1891, and the first charity or semi-postal appeared in 1895.

What country issued the first postage stamp booklet? It is stated that Luxemburg was the first, in 1895, but it has not been definitely confirmed.

Canada issued a booklet in 1897, and don’t I wish I had one of them, and the United States offered the first postage stamp booklets on sale on April 16, 1900, although telegraph stamps in booklet form were sold by the Western Union Telegraph Co. in the 1860’s.

PART III will conclude in the May issue.

Due to illness the Column Canadian News will not appear in this issue but will be continued in the May number.
A Canadian Find?

We were recently shown a piece of cover with a row of five one cent stamps, 1953 Queens, post-marked "Sarnia—9th Sept., 1954". The two left stamps and the right one are the normal violet-brown colour, but the two middle stamps are olive green, almost exactly the colour of the last Geo. VI, maybe a shade lighter.

The five stamps are mechanically cancelled, the date stamp being on the first and the wavy lines running almost to the end, covering both the olive green stamps. There is no sign whatever of any staining or tampering of any kind.
We know that Sarnia is the home of Imperial Oil and Polymer rubber and a multitude of chemical products, but how this might change a violet brown to olive green is more than we could say, especially to do it so neatly and cleanly! Can any one explain this? If it is an error of colour, how could it have crept in, passed a host of inspectors and other employees on the way to Sarnia and be unnoticed until now? This piece of cover was with a host of other pieces and narrowly escaped being placed in a basin of water with them, being noticed just in time.

MAP STAMP
COLLECTORS ORGANIZE

Collectors of map stamps and related material have set up their own organization for study and research as a special Unit of the American Topical Association. Charter members are now being enrolled at $1.00 a year.

Temporary officers of the Map Stamp Unit are: Allen H. Seed, Jr., New York, president; Judge Wm. R. Horney, Centreville, Maryland, and Walter Klinefelter, Red Lion, Pennsylvania, vice presidents; Wilfrid Webster, Bellmore, New York, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Eva Herod, Waukegan, Illinois; Dr. Philip F. Williams, Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania; and Professor Willem J. Luyt en, Minneapolis, Minnesota, are directors-at-large.

The new Unit has begun publication of its own bulletin, "The Carto-Philatelist," which features check lists of map stamps, new issues and discoveries, a map stamp exchange and informative articles. Complimentary copies of the first issue were mailed to all known map stamp collectors but anyone interested in this topical may secure a sample copy, application form and additional information by writing to Mr. W. Webster, 2493 Wilson Avenue, Bellmore, Long Island, New York.
The Realm Of Stamps

By Montor

Next to our own stamps those of the British West Indies are probably the most popular with Canadian collectors. Many of the early classics in this group are of great appeal. The richness of their colourings is magnificent.

There is something very attractive about these stamps from the romantic Caribbean, and they are also undoubtedly very popular with collectors in the United Kingdom and in the United States of America. They are possibly the most popular group of British Colonial stamps. In recent years there have been some very attractive pictorial sets depicting the history and attractions of these islands. One of the most beautiful of which is the current issue of the Bahamas. The stamps of this set are all bi-coloured and show a portrait of Queen Elizabeth II together with the Crown and depict scenes from the islands. An issue of this calibre is not only attractive from the collector’s point of view, but it also serves as excellent propaganda material for attracting tourists.

The Post Office is one of the first “ports of call” for the thousands of tourists who visit Nassau during the winter season. It is just across Rawson Square from the Prince George Wharf, and was like all of Bay Street gayly decorated with flags and bunting in her honour during the recent visit of Princess Margaret. Nassau, the capital of the Bahamas, is on Providence Island, one of the smaller inhabited islands of the Bahamas. The Postmaster of Bahamas, Mr. C. S. Thompson, is a veteran of the Princess Patricia’s Canadian Light Infantry and fought with the Regiment in France during the First World War.

As well as the definite set of pictorial stamps from ½d. to £1., there is now also on sale a 3d. post card bearing the portrait of Her Majesty. Of particular interest to specialists in B.W.I. stamps is the fact that coil stamps are sold in slot machines outside the Post Office in Nassau of the ½d., 1d., 3d., 6d., and 1/- denominations of the current pictorial issue. They are not available for sale in rolls. Paste up pairs showing the joins make interesting additions to a collection of these attractive stamps.

From the latest reports as we go to press it is certain that this month a most successful Convention and Exhibition is assured for the Society. A great deal of hard work has been put in by the committees of the host club, the Union Philatelique de Montreal, and it is hoped that the Convention will be attended by a record number of out of town delegates. The gymnasium of the College Mont St. Louis is an ideal place for an exhibition. It is spacious and the lighting is good. Montreal’s tourist attractions and its traditional hospitality are too well known to need further comment.

Incidentally if any out of town members arrive on the Thursday they will be made more than welcome at the regular weekly meeting of the Westmount Stamp Club at Victoria Hall at 8 p.m. onwards.

MONTREAL COLLECTORS
SEE SWISS FILM

At their regular weekly meeting on March 24 the members of the Westmount Stamp Club had the pleasure of seeing a most interesting film in colour produced by the Swiss Government showing the manufacturing of postage stamps.

Arrangements for the showing of the film were made by the president, Mr. Carl Mangold, through the courtesy of Dr. F. Kaestli, the Consul-General for Switzerland in Montreal.

Members of the other C.P.S. Chapters in the Montreal area were invited to attend the showing of this most interesting and instructive recording of the processes involved in the preparation and production of stamps. This was the first time that this film has been shown in Canada.
HISTORICAL NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE

The 8th Boy Scout World Jamboree is being held at Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ontario, Canada, August 18-28, 1955. A world jamboree is held once every four years and this is the first time that it has been held outside of Europe.

Niagara-on-the-Lake is a small town located at the mouth of the Niagara River and Lake Ontario. The official name of the community is “The Town of Niagara”. The title of Niagara-on-the-Lake is for postal purposes only.

It is a very historical town, dating back to the 18th century. It was originally called “Anghiar”, “Butlersburg” and “Newark”. Niagara was at different times a legislative, military, educational, commercial, naval, and social centre: the centre too of the Indian trade and the refuge of the escaped slave. Niagara can lay claim to having the first parliament of Upper Canada, 1792, the first newspaper in 1798, the first Agricultural Society in 1792, two of the first churches, the first library in 1800, the first law society, and one of the first Grammar schools in 1808. In its earliest periods it was an Indian village and one of the chief towns of the Neutral Indians.

On the outskirts of the town stand Fort George, built by the British 1796, but was almost completely destroyed by fire during the war of 1812. It has since been rebuilt by the Niagara Parks Commission from the original plans, and is now open to the public.

Nearby stands the Navy Hall, erected during the American Revolution. Lieut. Governor Simcoe had chosen Niagara to be the capital of the newly formed province of Upper Canada and the first session of the parliament was held in the Navy Hall September 17, 1792. The building has been completely renovated and is used today as a museum open to the public.

Another very interesting building is St. Mark’s Church. It was built in 1804 and is one of the few buildings to survive the sacking and burning of the town in 1812. At this time it was used as a hospital by the American forces during their occupation of the town. With its ivy covered walls and old graveyard it is simply a little bit of England. A very remarkable feature of this church is that during its entire life there have been but six rector’s, the last one being appointed this past summer.

A short distance away stands St. Vincent de Paul’s Roman Catholic Church, built in 1834. In its graveyard stands the Polish Veterans burial ground, the resting place of many of those Polish men who came from all parts to train here in Niagara during World War I.

Another beautiful old church is St. Andrew’s Presbyterian Church, built in 1831 to replace the church erected on the same spot in 1794 and destroyed when the town was burnt in 1812. It is one of the finest examples of small church architecture in Ontario.

Then there is the oldest Masonic Lodge in Canada, organized in 1792. The Masonic Hall, formerly called the Stone Barracks, was built in 1816 from ruins of the town on the site of the first Masonic Hall.

Visitors to Niagara particularly those who have an interest in Canadian history, will have a delightful time wandering around our town, admiring the many old and historical buildings and homes.

THE SECRETARY
ANSWERS
THE MEMBERS

Fellow Members;
On the eve of our Convention we do urge all members who can make the trip to Montreal to write for your reservations at the Queen Hotel, as we are assured of a very fine Convention.

As of the 31st of March your dues are needed and we ask you to send them promptly and not to leave them on your desks where they might be forgotten for a few months. $3.00 is the renewal fee plus bank charges for out of town members. Please attend to this very vital matter for the simple fact is we have to pay our bills and therefore need your fees to pay them.

We deeply regret to inform our members of the sad passing of #3268 Ed Goodale of Hamilton, a past President and Director of Archives of the Society. Ed Goodale was always a stalwart of the Society and all members will, I am sure, feel the great loss of a grand member and friend.

We welcome back A. H. Christenson of Montreal who has been basking in the climes of Florida and Bahamas. Our Vice-President has been sadly missed for his sage guidance and tremendous vitality as a member of The Montreal Advisory Council. See you at Montreal, OK lets go.

The magnificent specialised collection of the lithographed 1854-55 ½ anna and 1 anna has been formed by Col. A. E. Stewart of Ballater, an eminent authority on the early issues of the late Indian Empire. Each of the eight volumes are remarkable not only for the thoroughness with which the individual items are annotated, but by the pen and ink sketches by the owner which illustrate the particular detail to which attention is drawn.

Enlarged replicas of the stamps are freely used to indicate the position of flaws, retouches or irregularities, which are to be found on the items shown on each page. The condition throughout is generally very fine to superb and the offices at which the cancellations were applied are noted as relevant.

In addition to the numerous unused items spread over the eight "F.G. Popular" albums, three complete unused sheets are included which comprise the ½ anna die I A stone, ½ anna die II C stone and 1 anna die II.

This outstanding property is priced at
